

TAKE ONE LOOK BACK & YOU'LL LEAP FORWARD

Sometimes you look back and it all seems so clear
You remember your dreams, hopes and fears
Funny how it seems so many years have gone by Wishing you stopped them not let them fly
One a little girl, all grown up
Step back; take a look at the world,
You see it in a different light
With eyes open, it's out of sight
Hoping to recapture what was once so small
You hold in your hand a key that can do all
So let yourself go – wild and free
Like a bird soaring high above a tree
Be careful, watch out
Take one day at a time – you'll make it no doubt
